

Worksheet By
UpSkill Classes

NAPLAN YEAR 3

Language Conventions Part-2

www.upskillclasses.com

+91-965-438-8797

LANGUAGE CONVENTIONS

*Read the sentences. Each sentence has one word that is incorrect.
Write the correct spelling of each word in the boxes.*

1. Some birds have femail chicks that are larger than the male chicks.
2. Mitch tried to ballance a ball on the top of an orange traffic cone.
3. You should be thankfull that you have a meal!" said Dad seriously.
4. The chemist gave sensible advise without charging.
5. My favourite green vegetable is cellary.
6. There was once a yung lad named Jessy
7. who lived with his pearents in a small cottage
8. nere the end of a country lane.
9. One day Jessy's mother scent her son to
10. the stoare to get some groceries.

LANGUAGE CONVENTIONS

*Read the sentences. Each sentence has one word that is incorrect.
Write the correct spelling of each word in the boxes.*

1. Some birds have female chicks that are larger than the male chicks.
2. Mitch tried to balance a ball on the top of an orange traffic cone.
3. You should be thankful that you have a meal!" said Dad seriously.
4. The chemist gave sensible advice without charging.
5. My favourite green vegetable is celery.
6. There was once a young lad named Jessy
7. who lived with his parents in a small cottage
8. near the end of a country lane.
9. One day Jessy's mother sent her son to
10. the store to get some groceries.